

FINDING YOURSELF IN THE STREETS SHANGHAI

a street photography workshop with Michael Kistler and Mimo Khair

We are holding a two-day intensive street photography workshop in Shanghai on June 8th and 9th-2013. The workshop will expose participants to various styles and elements within street photography and provide them with numerous opportunities to experiment within a variety of urban locations. Shooting will include a combination of DSLR and iPhone (mobile phone) photography with significant attention devoted to both. Each day will be divided into explanation/instruction from the workshop coordinators (Mimo Khair and Michael Kistler); small group work/discussion; shooting sessions in different locations; feedback and recap. Students/participants are expected to bring a basic working knowledge of their cameras as well as a willingness to experiment with an artistic and open-minded approach to street photography.

Please see our website: <http://findingyourselfinthestreets.com/> for more specific information. Please contact us at: findingyourselfinthestreets@gmail.com to book your place. Workshop is limited to 20 participants and the cost is 3000 rmb per person which includes transportation and refreshments on both mornings.

This promises to be an amazing experience for all and we can't wait for it to happen!!

See you in the streets!
